CHOICES: LESSONS LEARNED FROM A REPEAT OFFENDER

BY RONALD L. JAMES PDF

“Ron James is a man who knows what he is talking about. Choices will humble you, inspire you, and make a positive difference in your life!” Tracey C. Jones, best-selling author and President of Tremendous Life Books

Ronald James knows about choices, both good and bad. Unfortunately, he also knows all too well about the personal cost and tragic results that bad choices bring. After spending more than twenty-five years of his life incarcerated in a nine-by-nine cell with nothing but an uncomfortable bed, a steel toilet and sink, and a roommate, James learned one important lesson: choices determine destiny.

With a determination to help others make better choices, James chronicles his emotional, heartfelt, amusing, and thought-provoking journey through his personal battles, decisions, and the consequences that led him to pay the ultimate price with his life and time. As he details his experiences from an early age, James provides insight into how he developed a survival mode of thinking that evolved into a powerful tool of manipulation. He began to believe in his own lies and became deceitful in order to remove himself from tight situations. While reflecting on his own path through life and the chain of events that eventually led to his downward spiral, James encourages and empowers others to learn from his mistakes, consider their choices, and trust in God to experience a life greater than ever imagined.

Choices is a compelling, inspirational autobiography that shares life-changing wisdom for anyone who wants to begin making better choices today.

The Truth

By Robert L. Jolles

This book is a diamond in the rough. It's written by a man who has been there and done that. Ron James tell you his story, his way, taking you through the many difficult choices he had to make in his life. But what makes this book and this author so special is the honesty with which he tells his story, and his unwavering desire for you to learn about the choices that face you. Bravo! A wonderful, and meaningful read!

a wonderfully inspiring book!

By stan

This book is a brutally honest look at the choices Ron James has made in his life and the people they have affected. He accepts full responsibility for these and blames no one but himself for all that has happened. He also lets us know that no matter how deep of a hole we dig for ourselves, it is the power of God that can help us get back on the right track. The final chapter of the book was most intriguing in how Ron describes the effects that easily accessible drugs have on our society and where we could be heading as a country if we don't get handle on it. It is quite a vision, but I can truly see us heading in that direction. I highly recommend this book to anyone who may have made some poor choices in life - which is most of us - as this was so encouraging to me.

Inspiring

By Lisa Lockwod

Ron James' is brutally honest in his telling of his life's journey, the choices that created the man he is today. You will find yourself captivated from the start, so much so you may find yourself (like me) devouring the whole book on your first read. While reading I found myself evaluating my own choices, and contemplating my relationship with family, friends, and God. This book will challenge the reader to make a change within themselves. One that will lead them, like Ron James' closer to their loved ones and more importantly to Jesus Christ.
