Better at jokes, than explaining them

By Three if by Space

This is yet another sterile, wandering attempt to make observations and draw conclusions about types of jokes. The difference here is that very many of the jokes are quite amusing, and many are not widely circulated. ("We ate the last cannibal, yesterday.") I.e., it's a good book to learn some jokes for parties. One chapter, unfortunately, on Auschwitz, is grossly offensive. I'd recommend skipping it, as soon as you confirm this for yourself.
