A kid's book for parents

By Jocelyn Perldeiner

Who am I kidding? I didn't think a kid turning 3 would be crazy for Kafka.

This kid's book is a great one for the intellectual parents in your life. Sedate the kid in front of the TV with Spongebob blasting and read yourself this beautiful book. Look around and the shattered remains of your life and fall into a beautifully illustrated pit of existential despair.

Fun way to introduce your kids to Kafka

By Jrussell424

Or for adults to enjoy! I bought it as one of the Christmas gifts for friends who have two small children. The adults are avid readers raising two more avid readers. They are quirky and I knew they would enjoy and cherish such a unique book. A good buy for anyone who enjoys unusual books.

This illustrated is nearly as interesting as the books Kafka wrote

By Pat McKnight

It is beautiful also. I have always thought of Kafka's works as being beyond adequate visual capture. This artist has been inspired by the writer he illustrates.
