Price is wrong. Good course for Khartoum Arabic

By vg

I was in Khartoum when this book and accompanying CD were first printed by SudMedia. In Khartoum this is a $10 book -- 8.5"x11", spiral bound. It was printed by SudMedia in Khartoum. SudMedia may no longer exist. It appears that SIL in the U.K. may also have printed some copies. I converted the audio tapes to digital CD format in both MP3 and WMA formats and I organized the course by lessons and by Drills.

My wife has the audio on her iPod and listens to the course as she walks for exercise. Recently there has been published by SIL a Sudan Arabic dictionary.

The Catholic Language Institute in Khartoum also published a very good book which is also course, but there is or was no audio available for this one when I was there.

We certainly did not pay $5K+ for our copy. I think there is a serious mistake in the pricing listed by Amazon.com. Neither is $199 a good price for a used copy.

Needless to say, both courses are for Khartoum Arabic. Arabic is not the same in all Arabic speaking countries -- or so I have been told. We had speakers visit from Egypt and Jordan and these stated that there is a difference, but they can still communicate. These are just dialect differences.
