THE QURAN: A NEW INTERPRETATION: IN ENGLISH WITH ARABIC TEXT BY M. B. BEHBUDI, DR COLIN TURNER PDF

This new rendering of the Holy Quran into the English language is the first of its kind, since it is a combination of translation and exegesis in which the author 'opens out' the verses of the Holy Book to reveal some of the layers of meaning expounded by the Prophet and transmitted through the ages by the Prophet's companions, family and the scholars who followed them. The fruit of over thirty years of research into the principles of Quranic exegesis and hadith analysis, this work matches a depth of Arabic and Islamic learning with a mastery of English that is lucid and accessible while preserving the integrity of the original text.

Interesting Shi'ite interpretation of the Qur'an

By A Customer

If you're considering this interesting interpretation of the Qur'an (and the Islamic tradition recognises that all rendition of the Qur'an in a foreign language is a form of interpretation) be aware that it is strongly exegetical and follows the interpretation of an Iranian Shi'ite theologian. By exegetical I mean that a lot of interpretation of the meaning of the text is incorporated in the translation. I'd recommend that an interested non-Muslim (like myself) read it alongside a more straightforward translation like Arberry's The Koran (remembering that almost all such translations have been done using the work of Sunni commentators).

textual manipulation

By Imran

See, for instance, 28:32 (Surah Al-Qasas), the translation that is given here begins with: "Take off your shoes, for this valley is sacred ... ". Now 32nd verse of Surah Al-Qasas does not begin like this (see any other translation to confirm it, or the arabic original). These words are actually taken from 20:12 (Surah Taha). This is criminally misleading, and changes the character of Quran. He could have added the reference to the detail regarding the shoes in a footnote, instead of misleading the readers. I don't know how the author/translator justifies this, but I would call it nothing more than an unfair textual manipulation that does not befit any translation of any text, much less a sacred scripture.

I have not read the rest of the translation, and do not intend to after reading this.

I would give it 0 stars if I could.

A very bad misleading translation.

By The lonely

This translation is misleading because it is not authentic. The original meanings have been manipulated with. I recommend other more authentic translations such as the translation of Yusuf Ali or the Oxford World's Classics. Those ones are very close to the original meaning in Arabic, but this one is not even close.
