THE SOCIAL CONSTRUCTION OF DIFFERENCE AND INEQUALITY: RACE, CLASS, GENDER, AND SEXUALITY BY TRACY E. ORE PDF

This anthology examines the social construction of race, class, gender, and sexuality and the institutional bases for these relations. While other texts discuss various forms of stratification and the impact of these on members of marginalized groups, Ore provides a thorough discussion of how such systems of stratification are formed and perpetuated and how forms of stratification are interconnected. The anthology supplies sufficient pedagogical tools to aid the student in understanding how the material relates to her/his own life and how her/his own attitudes, actions, and perspectives may serve to perpetuate a stratified system.

College book, messages for everyone

By J. Williams

I was required to read this book for one of my graduate classes and enjoyed the format and topics. The variety of authors and perspectives is interesting, and even though it talks down to the read in some of the section introductions, the overall message becomes clear: the systems in place that support racism and bigotry are large and well supported, but you can still do something starting with your most important asset-you.
